

July Premieres

The Nineties on CNN

Sundays at 9pm ET/PT

The Nineties takes us back to the presidencies of George H.W. Bush and Bill Clinton, technological triumphs and terrorist tragedies, the grunge revolution and ascendance of hip-hop to the mainstream, interracial conflict from LA to NY, and the groundbreaking and genre-bending new era of television. Executive produced by producers Tom Hanks and Gary Goetzman in association with HBO and producer Mark Herzog.

Will on TNT

Episode 1 - 6 available now

Mondays at 9/8c

Will tells the wild story of young William Shakespeare's arrival onto the punk-rock theater scene in 16th century London – the seductive, violent world where his raw talent faced rioting audiences, religious fanatics and raucous side-shows. It's described as a contemporary version of Shakespeare's life, played to a modern soundtrack that exposes all his recklessness, lustful temptations and brilliance. From Craig Pearce and Baz Luhrmann.

I'm Sorry on truTV

Episodes 1 - 3 available now

Wednesdays at 10/9c

Created by and starring Andrea Savage (Veep), I'm Sorry follows seemingly confident comedy writer, wife and mom Andrea, who comically exposes her inner immaturity and neuroses.

History of Comedy on CNN

Sundays at 10pm ET/PT

The History of Comedy explores how comedy has impacted the social and political landscape throughout our history.

People of Earth on TBS

Season 2 premiere Mon. July 24 at 10:30/9:30c

People of Earth is about a support group for alien abductees. The show centers on skeptical journalist Ozzie Graham (Wyatt Cenac), who investigates a support group to write about the members' supposed alien encounters. The more he digs into their oddball claims, the more he realizes there is truth in their stories and possibly even signs that point to his own alien abduction.

Rick & Morty on Adult Swim

[adult swim]

Season 3 premiere July 30

Brilliant but boozy scientist Rick hijacks his fretful teenage grandson, Morty, for wild escapades in other worlds and alternate dimensions.

August Premieres

OK K.O.! Let's Be Heroes on Cartoon Network

Premieres August 1 at 6:30pm

In a world of heroes, K.O. is a boy in training trying to be the best he can be. Even though he's not a hero yet, with his endless optimism, he turns every task, from fighting robots to mopping floors into a heroic feat!

The Guest Book on TBS

Two-episode premiere August 3 at 10/9c

The Guest Book centers on the vacation home Froggy Cottage and its visitors. While the house and cast of characters living in this small mountain town remain the same, in each episode, a different set of vacationing guests will bring their own special brand of crazy. From creator Greg Garcia (My Name Is Earl).

The Last Ship on TNT

Two-Hour Season 4 Premiere on August 20 at 9pm

Ranked as one of basic cable's Top 10 summer dramas through its first three seasons.

The crew of the ship has discovered that the virus now infects the world's food crops, bringing humanity to the brink of global famine. During season 4, the goes in search of a solution that can save the world's food supply.

